2012 Winter Workshops: Series One

January 6-20

RING IN THE NEW YEAR WITH THESE VISITING ARTISTS

AJ Silver

Angelo Iodice, also known as AJ Silver, is considered one of the finest western acts in the business today. He has studied dance/movement and character development, and the western arts such as trick roping, bullwhip artistry and bolas. Surprisingly, Silver did not grow up on a ranch in Texas, but was born and raised in the Bronx.

He fell in love with show business, especially the circus, as a youngster, and, after being informed by his parents that he could not have an elephant for his pet, he took to horses and riding, and saw his first trick-riding exhibition at a rodeo presentation at Madison Square Garden. He went on to learn rodeo expertise from a professional rodeo couple. Eventually, after receiving a Communications and Education Degree at Pace University, he hit the rodeo trail and has now crossed the USA as a rodeo performer in such venues as Cirque du Soleil's Solstrom, across Europe and Circus Flora.

Denise Wal

In 1996, Brazilian-born Denise Wal and 20 other students were chosen to participate to the "Universidade do Circo," a workshop given by french teachers and organized by Pierrot Bidon, the founder of Archaos Circus, a prominent troupe in the new circus movement. In 1997 she founded the "Circo Nosotros."

More recently, Denise has been an ongoing sensation in her extended tour with Cirque Du Soleil's Quidam; her popularity in St. Paul is just as enthusiastic as we welcome her Corde Lisse/Silks skills back for the second time.
